Editorial

The "Freeze Your Buns Run" was last month. This trip included www.DrMopars.com and HWY-71 Salvage. The snow stopped the masses, but not all of us. A select few braved the cold, wet, mud and dredged through the elements to find parts we needed, wanted, or could use a spare of. It was cold, and those us who thought tennis shows were a good idea found the wet cold went right through them.

Starting this month, if your name is on the "Dues Blues" list for 3 or more months, you will stop receiving the newsletter. Postage does cost us and I attend to start cutting back on frivolous expenses, so I can make others. ☺

This Month

The 22nd is our first car show. We need to remember to spread the word about the show and sign ourselves up as well. We want this to be a great event. If we all work together, this will be a show to remember. In this month's newsletter there's a copy of the flyer and the registration form. Please sign up for the show early and hand out a copy to friends, family and co-workers.

Missed In the Last Few Months

It was brought to my attention that two important event had been left out of the newsletter. What two? The marriage of Terry and Dana Siegmund and Chris and Fiona Ryon. A belated congratulations to both couples.

Dues Blues

This months list is a whopper. Please remember to take a moment to send in your dues.

Poor Mans Mechanic

In need of a transmission or oil cooler for your Mopar? Well maybe this will help you out. On automatic equipped Ford Bronco II's from the late 80's there are nice size coolers that can easily be modified to fit almost any configuration. I picked up 2 last month at "Pick & Pull" for $11 a piece. Plumb it in line with your transmission cooler in your radiator for some extra cooling. Also, I found that some of the newer cop cars use a 2-in-1 unit that is pretty nice. This unit has two lines for your transmission and two for your power steering. I will be picking up one of these for myself soon.

Good Luck,
Dustin C

Daytona Found in Iran

<http://www.ponysite.de/ironyard.htm>

Rare finds are typically found where usually nobody seeks. I am pretty sure none of you has ever been in Iran to search for Mustangs, and if so being you were for sure not allowed to enter a Iranian Ford enthusiast's junkyard. So here is your chance to stroll through secret aisles of broken Mustangs. While on the search for a true Shelby, our reporter - who wants to stay anonymous for obvious reasons - found out that there is still a bigger number of classic Ford iron around in the Iran than he expected. Even Shelsebys occasionally pop up here and there and he is still hoping to find one soon.

Well, our reporter did not have that bad luck on his search for a Shelby recently. Being directed by sb., who said there would be Shelby-like car in his neighborhood, he finally spotted this Daytona bought it on the spot. Let's hear his words of joy and pride (although it is not a Shelby yet).

"When I mentioned to a friend my disappointment about the recent Shelby locating that I could not buy, he asked me what a Shelby looked like. I explained to him the fact that it has a fiber glass front end, hood scoops etc.. He mentioned that he knew of a similar car which had been sitting in a yard for twenty years. After getting the address, I rushed over. After explaining to the lady (her deceased husband was the owner) that I heard that she had an old car sitting in the yard, she let me in. As I walked in the yard I saw a big red American car, which indeed had a fiberglass nose. But the funny thing was that one of its headlights was open (like a Corvette). Unfortunately it wasn't a Shelby. But (fortunately) it was a 1969 Dodge Daytona !!! It has a 440, 23,000 miles and is only missing the rear wing (which the owner has promised to find). It was parked by the owner after the revolution and it has sat there ever since until I bought and moved it out last week (Sept.2002)."
